Would you like to read a story to a therapy dog?

Sculpt a bearded dragon out of clay?

Make a yarn turtle?

Then come join us for this year's Exploring the Arts and Humanities Day! Enjoy fun workshops in Reading, Art, Writing, Theatre, and Music! This year, we will have special guest visits by the QHS Zoology Club, Guiding Eyes for the Blind, and registered therapy dogs!

Date: November 16th
Time: 9:30 - 2 pm
Cost: $25 includes pizza lunch
Location: Queensbury High School
Drop off at east entrance by Cafeteria

All Proceeds Will Benefit the Queensbury High School Literary Magazine!
Exploring the Arts and Humanities
Registration Form (Grades 2, 3, 4, and 5)

In order to secure a spot for a day of Exploring the Arts and Humanities on November 16th, please complete this form and return it to your child’s classroom teacher, along with $25 in cash. All registration forms will go to Mrs. Williams in the 2/3 office at QES and Mrs. Sheehan at WHBI. Participants will be chosen on a first come first serve basis. Please note: We will have the following animals on campus: registered therapy dogs, Guiding Eyes dogs, a bearded dragon, a gecko, a snake, and a turtle.
