Julie Rolleston, district courier

This Queensbury resident and class of 1983 alumna has worked in the district for 5-1/2 years. She works for the Buildings and Grounds department as a courier.

What do you enjoy about being a part of the Queensbury school community?

"I enjoy the friendships I have made with so many amazing, hardworking colleagues. I also hope I have made a positive impact on the students at QES."

"My job gives me the opportunity to be in every building every day, and I have met a lot of people who truly have a vision of making the lives of the students better. I enjoy helping in any way."

When you're not working, what are some of your favorite interests and activities?

"I love spending time with my family and friends. I also enjoy yoga, running and riding my bike."

"Relaxing with a good book, walking my Yorkie and camping in the summer."

In what ways do you try to support the greater Queensbury community and/or specific charitable organizations/groups?

"My husband and I help organize the annual Lake George Triathlon festival which raises money for many local charities. Also, I have my class participate in the Adopt-an-Angel program and recently have taken my students to visit nursing homes to sing songs and brighten the spirits of the elderly."

"Every year I donate to Dollars for Scholars, Clarkson University and St. Jude's Children's Hospital."
