

February 2013 – Week 1

Laurie Hackenburg, school nurse

This Queensbury resident has worked in the district for 14 years as a school nurse. She currently works in the high school and has also worked at the elementary school.

Paula Weeks,
special education teacher

This Queensbury resident has worked for as a special education teacher in the WHBI and elementary school for 16 years.

What do you enjoy about being a part of the Queensbury school community?

"I really enjoy the students and my co-workers. We are so lucky to have such wonderful people working here at Queensbury educating our children."

"I enjoy being part of such a great team. So much teamwork and caring goes into every student in our district. I am happy to be a part of that team."

When you're not working, what are some of your favorite interests and activities?

"Since my three children are grown, I am bush with my two dogs. I enjoy walking, snowshoeing, traveling and working out at the gym."

"During my free time, I enjoy being at home with my family and visiting with friends. In the summer, I like to read a good book, swim and watch movies."

In what ways do you try to support the greater Queensbury community and/or specific charitable organizations/groups?

"Since my oldest child was diagnosed with Juvenile Diabetes at age 9, I have always taken an active role in supporting the Juvenile Diabetes Association."

"My family contributes to the American Cancer Society, United Way and March of Dimes. We also support Special Olympics."