

February 2013 - Week 4

Ann Chagnon, bus driver

Ann has worked in the district for seven years as a bus driver.

What do you enjoy about being a part of the Queensbury school community?

"The best part about working at Queensbury is the children and my co-workers."

"I truly enjoy being a part of the Queensbury school community for a number of reasons. Specifically, I value the high academic standards the school, as well as the families, place on students, the amount of in school, and out of school activities available to children, and the friendships I've made while working in the district.."

When you're not working, what are some of your favorite interests and activities?

"My interests include cooking, nutrition, spending time with my family and studying natural medicine."

"I enjoy spending time with my family, doing special activities and outings with my two boys. We spend a lot of time in, on and around Lake George connecting with nature. And, when the weather cooperates I enjoy spending time gardening."

In what ways do you try to support the greater Queensbury community and/or specific charitable organizations/groups?

"I give when and where I can to many organizations, especially those involving animals and children."

"I'm fortunate that my position puts me in contact with many groups, organizations and individuals in the community which are in need to a special creative spark. I try to use art to celebrate and bring attention to their causes."

Jen Spath, art teacher

This Queensbury resident has worked for as an art teacher at the K/1 level for five years.
