

April 2013 - Week 2

Tracey Bureau, Business Teacher

This Queensbury resident has worked in the district for 13 years. She teaches business education at Queensbury High School, where she also serves as the Future Business Leaders of America club advisor. She previously served as a mentor, too.

Sharon Bardin, School Monitor

This Queensbury resident has worked for the district for 18.5 years. She is currently a school monitor at Queensbury High School. Previously, she served as a greeter at William H. Barton Intermediate School and as a special-education aide at Queensbury Elementary School.

What do you enjoy about being a part of the Queensbury school community?

"Knowing so many people on the campus, being a part of a great school district, and above all, the opportunity to teach, guide and help my students each day."

"I love the students and watching them grow from little people into young adults."

When you're not working, what are some of your favorite interests and activities?

"I love biking, teaching spinning classes, skiing and traveling as much as possible!"

"I like spending time with my grandchildren, one of whom is a first-grader at QES. I also enjoy refinishing furniture and sewing when I find the time. Most importantly, I enjoy spending time with my husband, whom I've been married to for 46 years."

In what ways do you try to support the greater Queensbury community and/or specific charitable organizations/groups?

"I am on the board of directors for the Glens Falls Area Youth Center and enjoy being involved in decisions that benefit students in our district as well as in others. I am one of the United Way representatives for our school district and have helped increase participation. As the FBLA advisor, I help facilitate events, activities and fundraisers that benefit our students as well as families and various organizations in our area (e.g., GFAYC, Open Door Kitchen, Relay for Life). Lately, I enjoy supporting a variety of other agencies in our area – including the Family Service Association, SPCA, United Way and South Glens Falls Marathon Dance – with time, supplies and/or donations."

"I support the Relay for Life."
